GRADUATE HOUSING - 2015 SUMMER HOUSING AGREEMENT
TERMS AND CONDITIONS SUPPLEMENT

This is an agreement between Princeton University (the “University”) and the undersigned member of the University community (the “resident”) in which the University agrees to provide the resident with room accommodations in the University housing facility (the “accommodations”) under terms and conditions which are in addition to the 2014-15 Terms and Conditions of the Graduate Housing/Dining Agreement.

1. Incorporation of Terms: The terms of Princeton University Housing Department Agreement, a copy of which is delivered to the student together with this agreement, and incorporated and made a part of this agreement. To the extent that the terms of this Supplement Agreement differ from those of general agreement, the terms hereof shall control.

2. Term of Agreement: Occupancy privileges will be granted only to those residents paying for rooms. The discovery of any occupancy not under contract will result in the immediate forfeiture of summer and academic year housing privileges for all residents of the suite/room. The Summer contract ending date is dependent upon the student’s upcoming fall housing assignment. If the student’s fall housing changes, so will the summer ending date.

3. Early Termination of this Agreement: If, for any reason, the student wishes to vacate the accommodations early, he/she must notify the Housing Department in person at least one week prior to the anticipated vacate date. (Weeks are from Sunday to Saturday) If such notice is received, charges will be pro-rated in increments on a weekly basis. Failure to provide the required notice will result in the student being financially obligated for the entire term of this agreement.

4. Students may experience brief periods of inconvenience or noise resulting from construction and refurbishing. Summer provides the University with the only opportunity to make repairs and improve mechanical systems. No refunds will be given.

Payment: The charge for the accommodations is as specified on this agreement.

1. All non-Princeton University students are required to pay the entire amount of their summer room charge prior to occupancy.

2. Enrolled Princeton students must pay their Summer Housing charges during the summer. The following are the payment requirements:
   a. Contracts for four weeks or less are payable in full at the time of signing the contact.
   b. Graduate Students receiving stipend checks from June through August, the summer housing fees will be automatically deducted from your stipend.
   c. The University may terminate the summer room contract and require the student to vacate the room if payment is not made as required.
